Title 15, Section 8004 of the Delaware Code: School Boards and Offices Paying Under $1,000

No candidate for election to any school board or to any other public office that pays less than $1,000 per year is required to form a candidate committee if he or she signs, under penalty of perjury, the statement below. Candidates who do not intend or expect that their campaign will receive or spend more than $2,000 from the date of the first contribution or expenditure on behalf of the Candidates election until the end of the year in which the election for such office is held are not required to form a candidate committee if they sign, under penalty of perjury, the statement below.

If the campaign subsequently receives or expends more than $2,000 (including any contributions or expenditures by the Candidate) before the end of the year in which the election for such office is held, the candidate must notify the Office of the State Election Commissioner within seven days of the receipt or expenditure which brings the total to more than $2,000. The Candidate must then form a Committee and file all required reports with the Campaign Finance Section of the Office of the State Election Commissioner.
